

50 Crazy Years in Broadcasting by Bryan Norcross

1979 – Meteorology Student & My First Weather Job

WECA-TV, Channel 27, Tallahassee

THIS IS A PLACEHOLDER

I talked a top guy in the renowned FSU Meteorology School and the Dean of the Communications school into creating a combination master's program that included all the meteorology for a Masters of Science, but also communications research. The local ABC station needed somebody to do the evening weather, and so my weathercasting career began.

MUCH MORE TO COME

Click to continue. Up next: 1980 – CNN and off to KGO in San Francisco.